THE ART OF SINGING: A SUMMIT FOR VOCAL PEDAGOGUES

JULY 19–23, 2022

Join the Aspen Music Festival and School’s internationally renowned artist-faculty and prestigious guests for a first-ever Aspen summit on the art of singing. This program has been created for collegiate and private voice teachers working with the advanced classical vocal artist. The program will include vocal pedagogy presentations and teaching demonstrations, with time for questions and discussion. The focus on working with vocalists in the studio will be supported by presentations showcasing the newest developments in caring for the professional voice, the science of learning, the world of opera for the young artist, and more.

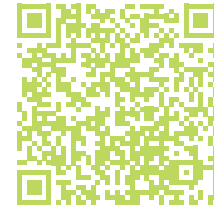

Conference participants are invited to attend the dress rehearsal of Aspen Music Festival’s production of Falstaff starring Bryn Terfel, and may attend the final performance at a special ticket price discounted for Summit attendees.

Aspen Opera Theater and VocalARTS Summit Faculty:

Renée Fleming	AOTVA Co-Artistic Director
Patrick Summers	AOTVA Co-Artistic Director
