A FEAST OF MUSIC

Aspen Promises

Dear Friends of the Aspen Music Festival and School,

We invite you to join us for an evening celebrating brilliant artistry and the Aspen Music Festival and School during its 77th Anniversary. The Season Benefit plays a vital role in sustaining this vibrant idyll of artistic excellence—ensuring that the AMFS continues to nurture talent, expand audiences, and shape the future of classical music for generations to come.

Throughout its history, the AMFS has stood among the world's leading classical music festivals and educational institutions. The Festival and School unites an international community of artists, students, and audiences in world-class performances elevated by rigorous musical training in a transformative artistic environment.

A Feast of Music: Aspen Promises will be an evening to remember, set on the picturesque Matthew and Carolyn Bucksbaum Campus, with performances by internationally celebrated artists, fine wines, and an exquisite four-course culinary experience.

I hope you will join me in toasting music's power to inspire, connect, and transform, and all the promise that this storied organization holds for the future of music.
