This Feast of Music will showcase the brilliant artistry at the Aspen Music Festival and School, with special appearances by the Danish String Quartet, tenor Lawrence Brownlee, cellist Abel Selaocoe, and this year's Dorothy DeLay Competition winner, prodigy violinist William Yeh.

Borrowing its name from the AMFS's aspirational campaign, Aspen Promises embodies the collective commitment of audiences, musicians, mentors, and donors—including our esteemed honorees, Mona Look-Mazza and Tony Mazza—to nurturing excellence in music education and the future of classical music in Aspen.

We hope you will join us for an inspiring evening of superb performances, exquisite wines, and a masterfully curated culinary experience in celebration of the promising future we are building together.
